Trade on 1inch

Overview mission

The 1inch Network is building highly performing decentralized protocols and products innovating in the DeFi sector.

The initial protocol of the 1inch Network is the highest ranking DeFi aggregator that searches deals across multiple liquidity sources, splits the trades into parts and offers users the best rates on the market for their crypto trades.

Aside from the aggregator, 1inch Network has built several synergistic products including, but not limited to:

- 1inch Wallet as a one-stop-shop for DeFi
- A limit order protocol with enhanced trader functionality (limit orders & stop losses)
- Innovative DAO model with instant governance
- A high performance liquidity protocol
- Advanced robo trading strategies
- & more
