The other two women are slightly behind her, also smiling. The scene is set in a park with trees and a path. The image has a warm, golden-yellow color overlay.

Our vision is a world free of the burden of chronic disease

Chronic disease costs the US $3.7T and 1.7M lives each year

 Initial focus

Annual Economic Costs of Chronic Disease (USA, $T)

Chronic disease is responsible for 7 out of 10 deaths in the US

Sources: National Institutes of Health (NIH), Milken Institute

All current models for type 2 diabetes have significant limitations

Estimated US Type 2 Diabetes Population by Responsible Provider (30M total)

Sources: CDC, Endocrine Society, Fierce Healthcare

We provide tech-enabled office-based and virtual care to patients with chronic disease

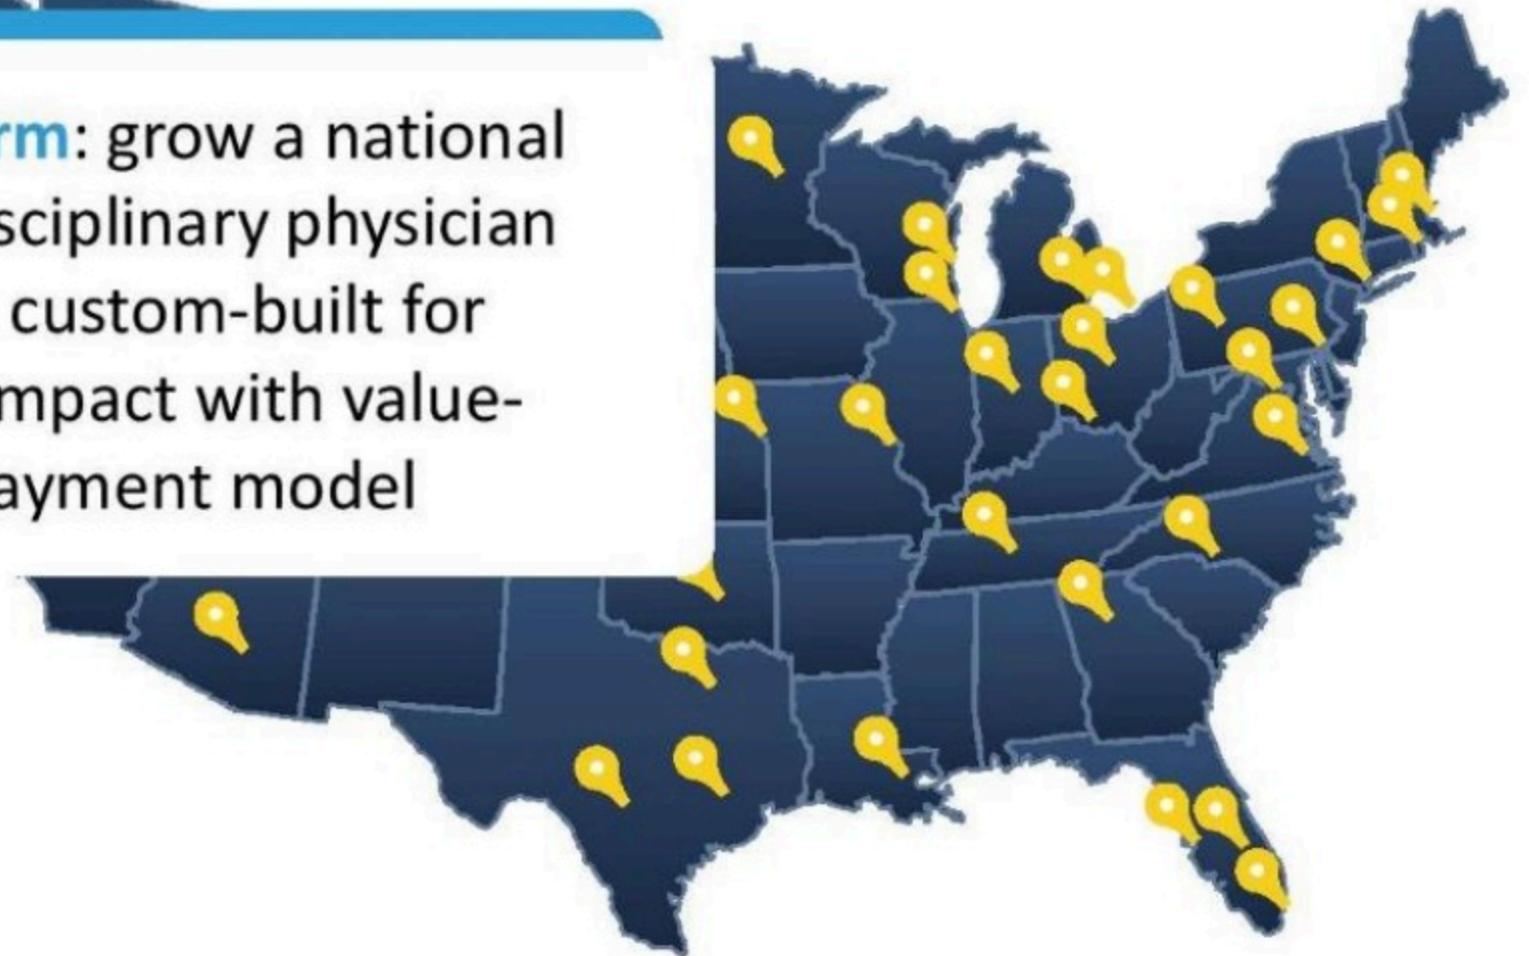

Proof-of-concept:

launch a successful tech-enabled endocrinology practice serving high-complexity patients with type 2 diabetes in the DC & Baltimore metro areas

Long-term: grow a national multi-disciplinary physician practice custom-built for clinical impact with value-based payment model

Our approach is a comprehensive care team and deep technology layer

■ Typical specialist practice ■ Ryse enhancements

Enthusiastic Health Coaches to be a consistent source of contact and encouragement along the care journey

A broad care team of Registered Dietitians (RDs), Certified Diabetes Care & Education Specialists (CDCESs), and others to provide tailored guidance

Deeply experienced prescribers (Endocrinologists, NPs, and PAs) who are focused on driving outcomes, not CPT codes

Licensed Clinical Social Workers (LCSWs) to help patients navigate the psychosocial barriers to overcoming chronic disease

Technology platform including CGM & custom app to synthesize data, support self management, and smooth communication

All of our patients go through a launch phase followed by a maintenance phase

Set up

- 2-hour visit with full care team to establish care plan and set up tech

Launch

- 60-day period of frequent data review and largely/fully virtual contact to help patient reach goal

Maintenance

- Ongoing lighter-touch communication, quarterly A1c reviews, and periodic visits to ensure patient stays on track

Tune up (as needed)

- Additional intensive 60-day period if patient requires more support or blood glucose is trending in the wrong direction

We're already seeing outstanding patient outcomes

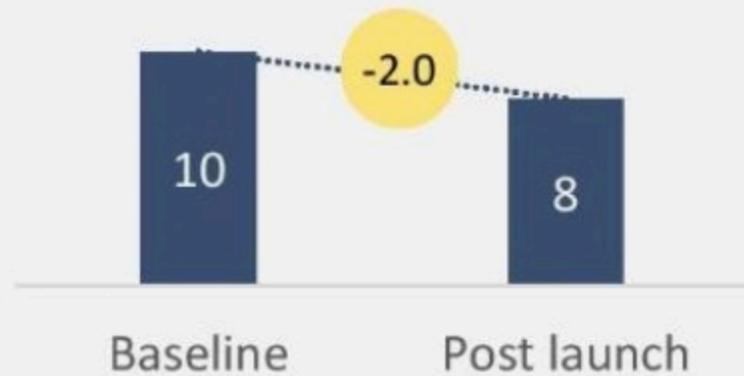

Glycemic Control

Average % time out of range (all)

Average A1c (patients w/ initial A1c >8)

That was wonderful. I realized my life isn't going to end with diabetes... Ryse is the greatest thing that's happened to me.

My average blood sugar is lower, I'm losing weight, and I'm feeling better than I have in a long time.

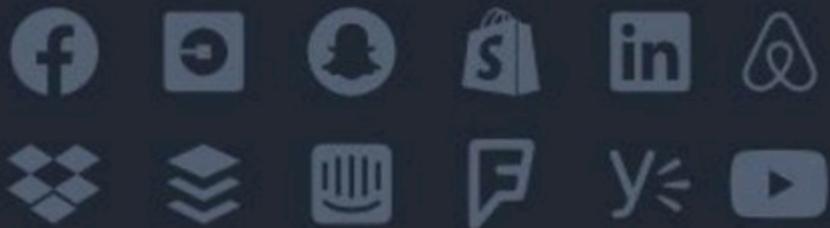

Fantastic. One of the best healthcare experiences I've ever had.

I am so happy with every practitioner I have had at Ryse Health.
