

Spora Health Pitch Deck

Seed Plus Raise

In America, being Black is bad for your health

Racial Healthcare Disparities

A product of design

- Black children have a 500% higher death rate from asthma compared to white children
- Black women are less likely to have breast cancer than white women, but 40% more likely to die from the disease
- If Blacks and whites had the same mortality rate, 100K fewer Black folks would die each year

Black Americans also experience the 'weathering effect', which means they get sicker at younger ages, have more severe illnesses, and are biologically aging more rapidly than whites due to cumulative stress
