A large crowd of people is standing in a long line on a wide set of stone steps. The people are seen from behind, looking towards the top of the stairs. The scene is outdoors, and the background shows a large, classical-style building with stone columns and arches. A prominent red banner with white text is overlaid across the middle of the image.
